On the 8th of May 2010, the Church of Hope Parish in Lae City circuit of the Jabem district organised a Prayer Barbeque.

The objective of the event is to pray together as Christians and encourage prayer commitment in personal, family and congregational devotions.

The event was organised by the Unitech Prayer group. This is a group made up of intellectual Lutheran lecturers, students and other officers in Unitech. The group is led by Dr. Reilly Nigo, Mr. Gomi Gipe, Ps Elymas Bakung and Mr. Jack Serum.

At the occasions the Evangelism department secretary, Rev. Junare Binora, Ministerial Training department secretary, Rev. Hans Giegere and CPP Manager, Mr. Francis Gumembi were present amongst other former Lutheran graduates from Unitech as guests.

The occasion began with a devotion lead by Rev. Hans Giegere and then prayer points being prayed on. These are the list of prayer points and the person who led the prayer; Ministries in the Church (Rev. Baafeke), Maladina case and corruption in government (Rev. Busop), Lae City circuit programs (Rev. Hans), Graduates and Lutheran intellectuals (Mr. Yawing) and Cult practices in Lutheran institutions (Rev. Binora).

According to the organisers, this is the first of four prayer barbeque planned for this year. These are the next three venues; to Martin Luther Seminary, to Ampo and then to Nawae Lutheran High school.
